Sewer suits filed

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer
Condemnation proceedings to obtain sanitary sewer rights-of-way through 61 parcels of property were initiated Thursday afternoon by Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hangerman of Granite City and Larry Calvo, condemnation attorney for the county's special sewer committee.

Both signed a condemnation petition and filed it with the court Thursday afternoon, asking the court to condemn the parcels and set a fair compensation rate for each.

The petition names 107 individuals who own the property, hold liens on parcels or have other ownership interests.

Among the property being condemned is one site for a lift station. Two lift station sites have already been purchased and five or six are to be purchased, since tentative agreement has been reached with the owners, Calvo said.

A hearing will be set on the petition, at which time the judge will consider whether to condemn all the properties jointly or whether to have some considered separately. Negotiations and efforts to secure rights-of-way through the parcels will continue during this time and persons who do sign easements will be dismissed from the condemnation suit, Calvo stated.

Meanwhile, construction is proceeding well as interceptor lines are being constructed from the Mitchell area to the Granite City Army installation, where they will link into the Granite City primary and secondary sewage treatment facilities.

Collector lines already are in the ground in part of Brooks Addition of Mitchell, north of Ashland Avenue and between Ashland and Barkley Street. Walter "Dick" Sparks, chairman of the special sewer committee, said he is very satisfied with the progress thus far, and assured everyone whose property has been worked on that the contractor is obligated to return the property to its original condition, in-

GC budget pleas for revenue sharing funds exceed income

The Granite City Council tomorrow night will have to wrestle with $767,706 worth of requests for federal revenue sharing funds, since the city is only expected to receive about $600,000 from the federal government for that fund in the 1978-79 fiscal year.

At last week's meeting, Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, chairman of the finance committee, told the council the committee has received requests from department heads for purchases from revenue sharing, and some funds already are committed.

Unless the city's tentative budget is amended to provide more money for police and fire salaries, revenue sharing will be the only source for the anticipated $380,956 in police and fire salaries not included in the city budget. The street department also is requesting $50,000 for salaries.

He said the city also has committed funds to purchase two tandem trucks for the street department at a total of $40,000, and an asphalt spreader for that department costing $35,000.

An estimated $1,000 from revenue sharing is needed for upkeep and replacement of the Opticom system which turns traffic lights green for emergency vehicles, since no provision has been made for that purpose in the city budget.

In addition, there are requests on file for purchases totaling $151,750 for the police department, $29,000 for the fire department and $212,400 for the street department (including

Partney heads UW construction drive

David Partney of the Granite Sheet Metal Works has been appointed as Tri-Cities Area United Way Construction Division chairman for the fall 1978 United Way solicitation by General Campaign Chairman William P. Donovan, works manager, American Steel Foundries.

He has been active in a wide range of community service activities.

The division, according to Donovan, "includes more than 33 givers, and last year contributed a total of over $12,000."

"With improving business conditions in our community, we are looking toward improvement in all United Way division solicitations and know that Dave Partney's help will be vital to our overall effort."

"Organization activities are moving forward at a good rate and many are volunteering their service to help in our United Way drive."

"They are the kind of people who are committed to a united effort. Their help is absolutely vital and essential," Donovan concluded.

members of the Police Department are provided in a new budget for the city of Madison that will call for expenditures of $1,847,137 during the current fiscal year.

The new budget draft now in preparation will permit creation of the rank of lieutenant, four sergeants, one detective, four patrolmen and one probationary patrolman, with a $50 difference in salary between the ranks of patrolman, sergeant and lieutenant.

The new job classification system would be initiated for all city employees other than those in the police department.

The City Council finance committee, along with other officials, is currently working on the job classification system for city employees. Salaries for the new year will depend on the classification a city employee falls under.

The finance committee feels this will be a more equitable system for all concerned, a spokesman said.

The new budget will be submitted to the City Council for final approval at its regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 25.

Some changes in the tentative budget are expected.

The new budget is $556,836 higher than the finally approved budget of $1,290,301 for the 1977-78 year.

A major item causing the budget increase is a one-time entry of $600,000 for a proposed shopping mall project.

It was noted by Al Hudzik, city comptroller, that this is a tentative budget and that although an item appears in the budget it does not mean that amount will be spent.

The amount of revenue actually obtained by the city has a major influence on what is actually spent, according to Hudzik.

New items budgeted in addition to the shopping mall this year include $18,700 for engineering on the city improvement projects; $20,000 for the ambulance service fund; and $50,000 for an alarm service fund should the city change the alarm system, which is being considered.

The Police Department budget has been increased by $2,740 from $228,384 to $231,124; fire department, decreased by $3,203 from $62,973 to $59,770; street and alley department, increased by $17,416 from $113,579 to $130,995.

The emergency services and disaster agencies budget (civil defense) has been increased by $9,150 from $2,300 to $11,450. Of the increase, $8,450 involves new equipment installation, such as a public alert siren and citizen band radio.

Venice schools can fund only half of year

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

Venice School District 3—beset by mounting money problems in recent years—is now facing an even more critical financial problem that may leave the district without funds to operate more than one-half of its current 1978-79 school year. While the new crisis is due to a great extent to a $5.5 million loss in property assessments last year, school officials revealed in a meeting Thursday night that the district may not receive further revenue under its Title VII federally funded programs, which could mean a loss of up to $355,000 in this year's school revenue.

The district's serious funding problem was emphasized in Thursday's meeting with the posting of a new school budget for the 1978-79 school year, totaling $2,305,679, of which $1,768,145 is earmarked for the educational fund.

Even though the total of the new tentative budget is $110,279 below last year's finally approved appropriation of $2,415,958, it projects a deficit of $624,283. Of this anticipated deficit, $395,194 is in the educational fund, and $231,019 is in the building fund.

The overall deficit projected in the new budget is an increase of $203,350 over the deficit of $420,353 which was projected in the 1977-78 budget approved by the Board of Education last year.

Superintendent of Schools Robert Vickers said he is adding to the prospects of a large operating deficit during the school's current year—which began July 1—is the potential

Former wife of 1975 murder victim held

A surprise arrest in St. Louis Thursday afternoon has added another name to the list of those charged in the shooting and beating death of Larry Wayne Smith, 33, who was killed outside of his Gaslight Walk apartment in Pontoon Beach Sept. 8, 1975.

Mr. Smith's former wife, Mrs. Virginia L. Woodall, 42, St. Louis, was arrested by agents of the Illinois Division of Investigation as she left a St. Louis Circuit Court courtroom. She has been charged with murder.

She had been subpoenaed to the court of St. Louis Circuit Judge Michael J. Hart, who ordered her to appear in Madison County as a witness in the trial of her son-in-law, Darrell Hawes, 20, South Roxana, who is accused of conspiracy to murder Mr. Smith.

Hawes has since pleaded guilty to the charge in return for a 14-year prison term, the minimum under Illinois Class X laws which call for doubling the seven-year minimum term on that charge when the murder was exceptionally violent or heinous. Implicated Mr. Smith's former wife in the case, Assistant Madison County State's Attorney Don Weber contended. He is to be sentenced by Circuit Judge Harold R. Clark.

Mrs. Woodall waived extradition and has been taken to the Madison County Jail in Edwardsville, where her bond is $200,000.

Bet services illegal

The battle over the legality of horse race messenger services in Illinois ended Friday with a state Supreme Court ruling that off-track horse race betting is subject to state control and that a 1977 state law outlawing private bet services is constitutional.

The Illinois Department of Law Enforcement was ordered immediately after the ruling to stop off-track betting. The offices which had been open prior to the ruling were allowed to stay open to pay bet winners, but were prohibited from accepting additional bets.

Finish Line Express offices in Granite City and Venice have been closed for some time and will not be allowed to reopen, authorities said today.

The Supreme Court decision ends a lengthy battle in Madison County which included several raids and arrests; court injunctions prohibiting police from enforcing the state law; additional arrests which occurred under local gambling statutes; and the subsequent conviction of Queen Ester Dean of East St. Louis on gambling charges. She was an employee of the Granite City Finish Line Express office.

The Venice office was plagued from the time it was first established by the city's refusal to grant it a business license. It has been closed several months.

The Supreme Court's opinion was written by Justice Robert C. Underwood who said, "It is well within the authority of the state of Illinois to limit gambling on horse races to those who are at the track betting for themselves or betting for others only as a courtesy and not for a fee."

The decision said that while messenger services do not constitute gambling itself, they obviously are intertwined with gambling and could not exist without it.

"It is undisputed that gambling is an activity which is subject to regulation, or to complete prohibition," Underwood stated in finding the state statute valid. There were no dissenting opinions by the other justices.

Robert H. Rice, attorney for Finish Line offices in this area, is quoted as saying, "It looks like the litigation has finally hit the finish line."

The Supreme Court's determination that the state can loss of Title VII federal funding of about $280,000, and possible as high as $345,000.

"I have been informed that Title VII funds will expire this year and there is no indication at this point as to what we will or will not receive under a new program now before the Senate," Vickers said.

He explained that the Venice school district has been receiving about $280,000 each school year for "pilot" projects under Title VII, along with approximately $55,000 in Title VII money for "basic" projects.

He explained that the Venice school district has been receiving about $280,000 each school year for "pilot" projects under Title VII, along with approximately $55,000 in Title VII money for "basic" projects.

"My information indicates that whatever is appropriated for Title VII in the new bill now under consideration, virtually all of it is to go for basic project operations," he said, noting, "It is possible we would receive our basic projects money, but not that for pilot projects, if this indication is true."

The Venice school district could lose as many as 23 jobs, including teachers, aides and clerk or secretarial employees, if the district does not receive renewal funds for its pilot project operations, Vickers said.

The school district has 48 teachers on its current roster. Of these, eight would be eliminated by loss of Title VII funding.

At the same time, Vickers predicted that under the present budget projections, tax funds, state aid and other school district revenue "will not permit the district to operate the current year beyond Jan. 1."

At that point, he said, the district will have no alternative to issuing "second-year" anticipation warrants to continue operations to the end of the current year on June 30, 1979. Second-year tax warrants means the district would be borrowing against its tax income for the year.

Operations to Jan. 1 will require all available first-year anticipation warrants up to that point.

TRANSFER STATION of the $2.7 million Illinois Capital Development Board project being built east of the Chain of Rocks Canal at the Tri-City Regional Port District is seen during the construction. Railroad tracks will be laid through the structure to allow rail cars to release their loads of grain products into an underground 100-ton capacity hopper. The grain products then will be transported to waiting barges on the canal by way of an 800-foot conveyor system which moves the grain over the east levee of the canal. The target date for completion of the project is Sept. 1. The Port District will operate the facility through a private firm.

Diseased blackberry plants lack fruit

By CHRIS DOLL
Extension Service
Garden Adviser

Blackberries or "nubbins" on blackberry plants that bloomed profusely indicates plant sterility and sterile blackberry plants are best removed from the garden. The fruit failure may be complete, with no fruit set at all, or it may be partial with production of misshapen berries ranging from nearly normal in appearance to some with only a single drupelet.

The production of such "nubbins" is generally caused by a virus disease. Affected plants produce new canes that are more vigorous, with glossier and rounder leaflets than normal. The leaves also develop a brilliant, premature fall reddening.

The flowers look normal but only a few, if any, drupelets will develop on each receptacle. Fruit bud production for the next season is also reduced. The virus will spread in a planting, but how it spreads is still unknown. There is also no known chemical control for this type of blackberry sterility.

It is suggested that infected plants be grubbed out and destroyed. Try to get as much of the root system as possible. Check the area for wild or abandoned plantings with similar symptoms and remove them also. After the affected plants are removed, new plants can be purchased from nurseries next spring.

Tomato, the universal garden crop in Southwestern Illinois, is subject to many diseases. The most common problems in 1978 are fusarium wilt, early blight, Septoria leaf spot, leaf roll, and blossom-end rot. Anthracnose and late blight should come later.

Of these, fusarium wilt is one of the most severe. It should be prevented by the use of resistant varieties, but many gardeners plant "old favorites" that lack resistance. Since Fusarium is caused by soil fungus, there are no sprays or dusts for control.

Fusarium causes wilting because the water- and food-conducting channels are brown and ineffective. The plants turn yellow, lower leaves wilt first, and then the entire plant. This usually happens about fruit set time, but many occur anytime during the growing season.

Verticillium wilt is another soil-borne fungus that has similar characteristics. Only laboratory tests can tell the difference in diseases. But as with fusarium wilt, it shouldn't happen because there are resistant varieties available.

Diseases that can be controlled with pesticides are early and late blight, Septoria leaf spot, anthracnose and several others. These are best controlled with regular applications of maneb, zineb, mancozeb, Bravo or Dyne. Do not spray maneb, zineb, or mancozeb within five days of harvest.

Leaf roll and blossom-end rot are usually physiological and related to culture and weather. No chemical control is used for them.

Good cultural practices are also an aid to tomato disease control. Staking or caging and providing good air circulation will help prevent foliar diseases, and mulching will help prevent fruit rots.

Detention home escapee caught by police here

A 16-year-old boy who had escaped earlier from the Macomb County Detention Home at Edwardsville was picked up here at 7:30 a.m. Saturday and returned to the home.

The boy first was seen on Route 203 near Morrison Road, but ran into the weeds and behind a home to elude officers. He later was apprehended in a grove of trees in the 4900 block of Maryville Road.

Police said they were informed the boy had escaped from the detention home about 10 p.m. Friday.

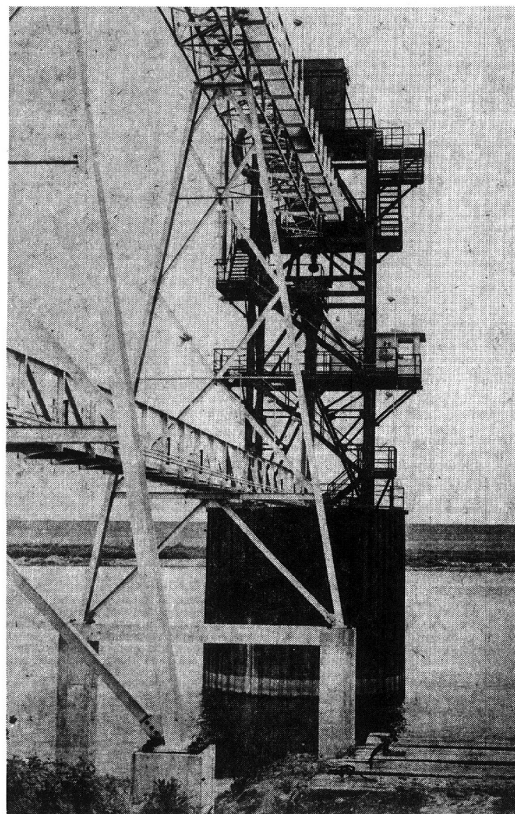

Drivers hurt

Two drivers of cars that collided at Edwardsville Road and Nameoki Road at 2:10 p.m. Friday were treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Lowry Reed, 82, of 2814 E. 24th St., suffered a cut to the top of his head and was admitted for observation. Walter L. Schmidt, 28, of 2332 Lynch Ave., was treated for abrasions to the right forearm and right knee and was released after treatment.

Police reported Schmidt's car was westbound on Edwardsville Road, as Reed attempted to make a left turn from Nameoki.

DAMAGE AT CAR WASH
Vandals pushed over tri-car vacuum units at the GC Car Wash, 3653 Nameoki Road, cut four hoses and took four car wash nozzles, it was reported at 9:50 a.m. Saturday. Loss was estimated at $126.

Gaining entry by breaking out a window with a rock, burglars ransacked a bedroom at the home of Eva M. Shearer, 2660 Benton St., it was reported at 3:20 p.m. Saturday. A stamp collection was stolen and a television was moved to the front door but was not taken.

The examination, to be given on Sept. 25 and 26, is given annually to qualify persons who are neither CPA's nor attorneys to represent clients before the IRS.

Persons who want to take the examination must submit Form 5587, Application for the 1978 Special Enrollment Examination, to the Director, Audit Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C., 20224. No extensions of time to file applications will be granted beyond Aug. 15, the IRS said.

The application must be accompanied by a recent photo of the applicant, which will be used for identification purposes only, and a check or money order for the examination fee, made payable to the Internal Revenue Service.

IRS application deadline

The deadline for filing an application to take the IRS Special Enrollment Examination is Aug. 15, the Internal Revenue Service has announced.

The 1978 examination will have an increased emphasis on federal tax laws as they apply to business operations such as sole proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations.

Publication 486, "Requirements for Internal Revenue Service Enrollment and Special Enrollment Examination," identifies questions and answers that may be helpful in preparing for the examination. Banks honored for auto license sales

John A. Giannlis and Charles Delrich, representing Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon, has presented a Certificate of Esteem and Recognition to Melvin Willsmeier, president of First Granite City National Bank and Ernest A. Karandjef, chairman and president of Granite City Trust & Savings Bank in Granite City for 10 years of service in the Financial Institution License Plate Program.

In addition to providing license plate service in the community, Dixon said the banks are a vital part of a program which has greatly eased the workload in his office during peak periods of annual license plate sales.

Financial institutions handled approximately 45 percent of all passenger license plate sales last year. The banks have sold more than 180,000 plates in the 10-year period. They will sell the new multi-year license plates and 1979 renewal stickers over-the-counter starting Dec. 1.

Renewal stickers also will be sold over-the-counter at the two banks from 1980 through 1983.

New enemy for those who cheat consumers

By JEFF TREWHITT

SPRINGFIELD — Businessmen who cheat customers probably will find the new chief of the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division to be a formidable enemy. They could end up in jail, if she gets her way.

Susan Pierson DeWitt, a tough-talking lawyer from northern Illinois, thinks the division could take a stronger position in some cases.

She says legislation is needed to give consumer protection officials the right to seek criminal as well as civil penalties. The Consumer Protection Division at present can seek a court ruling preventing an errant company from doing business. It can seek up to $50,000 in civil penalties and get restitution for defrauded consumers.

"To me, there's no difference between a person who steals your wallet and one who takes $200 from you to install a patio, but has no intention of doing it," DeWitt said in an interview.

"All we can do now is ask them to stop doing it, but if they don't have the money, they can just laugh at us. We need to ask the General Assembly to broaden the power of the (Consumer Fraud) Act to include criminal enforcement."

DeWitt thinks chances of legislation passage are good if the Attorney General receives support from the state association of state's attorneys.

"They don't like the idea of us having some criminal power, but my experience indicates state's attorneys don't want to be bothered with theft by deception cases because their hands are full with felonies," she said.

"If we approach it the right way, I think we'll be able to convince them."

Housing rentals hiked at SIUE

Increases in rental rates for University Housing on the Edwardsville campus were approved Thursday by the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees. The increases will go into effect Sept. 1.

The rate increase for family units ranges from $12 to $13 per month, depending on the type of unit. Families now paying $140 per month for a two-bedroom unfurnished housing unit will pay $152 when the increase goes into effect. Families paying $150 for a two-bedroom furnished unit will pay $165 each month.

Monthly rent on a three-bedroom unfurnished unit will move from $150 to $162, and rent on the same unit furnished will be raised from $160 to $175.

The rate increase per month for single student housing will range from $4 to $10, also depending on the type of housing. A student living in a two-bedroom-four-person unit will pay $60 instead of $55 each month. A student living in a two-bedroom-two-person unit will pay $120 instead of $110.

Single students residing in a three-bedroom-six-person unit will pay $49 instead of $45, and those living in a three-bedroom-three-person unit will each pay $98 instead of $90 each month.

Rental for a student living in the double room accommodations of a two-bedroom-three-bedroom unit will be $60 per month while the student living in the single room of the accommodations will pay $90.

University officers said that during the past year, increases in the cost of operations and improvements in maintenance services for University Housing at SIUE have exceeded the revenues generated from renting the units.

Without the increase in rental rates, officers estimated that the Fiscal Year '79 operating deficit for University Housing at the Edwardsville campus would be $75,000.

The situation has been blamed primarily on inflationary increases, increases in utility rates and housing personnel costs, and the institution of a program of scheduled maintenance services for the housing units, officers said.

Hospital auxiliary awards grants

Eight young women and three young men are the recipients of 1978 scholarship awards, presented by St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary, to further their education in programs of study connected with nursing and allied health fields.

Mrs. Fran Holt, scholarship committee chairman, said the $325 grants may be applied toward tuition, textbooks, uniforms or dormitory fees.

The scholarships were presented to the winners by Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Sara Metcalf and Mrs. Joyce Toussaint, committee members, at the auxiliary's general meeting at the Granite City hospital.

Mrs. Louise Smith also is a member of the scholarship committee.

Parents of the recipients attended the auxiliary session to see the awards presented.

Mrs. Holt noted the individual scholarships are available to area residents enrolled in study programs for any of 200 allied health fields, including dietetics, inhalation therapy, medical records, medical technology, nursing, x-ray technology, dentistry and related fields, and also veterinary technical fields.

Primary funding for the grants is achieved through the endeavors, sales and services at the auxiliary-sponsored Coffee and Gift Shop, located on the ground floor level at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

ERA deadline extension in doubt

By ROBERT ESTILL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Washington—Unless there is some "dramatic" amendment, the proposed deadline extension for Equal Rights Amendment ratification is not likely to clear the House Judiciary Committee.

That is the assessment of Rep. Robert McClory of Lake Bluff, ranking Republican on the committee and a longtime ERA supporter who has ranked Pro-ERA forces by opposing the extension.

McClory believes Rep. Don Edwards, D-Calif., can muster the 18 votes needed to clear committee only by shortening the extension from seven years to three or four years.

The current deadline is March 22, 1979, and the ERA advocates are three states shy of the 38 needed for ratification.

Counts vary on the number of committee members who will vote for deadline extension.

McClory pegs it at 14; Edwards counts 16 supporters.

Edwards said he now is negotiating with some committee members in an attempt to win their votes by shortening the extension period. If he succeeds, a full committee vote could come as early as July 18.

Although McClory was the primary House Republican sponsor of the resolution which submitted the ERA to the states in 1972, he remains opposed to extending the original seven-year deadline.

"It would indicate there is no chance of ratification before next March, and that they (the Pro-ERA forces) are throwing in the sponge as far as ratification within the original seven-year period is concerned," McClory said.

McClory would prefer to see the ERA advocates make an all-out effort before March 22 in Illinois and other states which have yet to ratify ERA.

Although the Illinois legislature twice this year has rejected the proposed constitutional amendment, McClory said he feels it would be approved when the state lawmakers return in November for a post-election session.

But sentiment in Washington has not been altered, he believes.

The massive demonstration held July 8 by ERA supporters produced no changes except possibly to "harden the opposition," McClory said.

And the ERA supporters who called McClory from the House chambers July 10 did nothing to soften his opposition to the deadline extension.

"Some of them were quite offensive," he said.

McClory said they questioned his sincerity and berated Gov. James Thompson, an ERA supporter, for allowing Lt. Gov. Dave O'Neal to oppose the amendment.

McClory said he is wary of attempts to reach a compromise by cutting the proposed seven-year extension to a shorter term. He said it would be a device to measure to the House floor where the seven-year extension could be restored.

He and Edwards are in agreement on at least one score: They both oppose an amendment offered by Rep. Tom Raliback of Moine, second ranking Republican on the committee.

Raliback's amendment couples any extension with a proviso allowing states which ratified ERA in the first seven-year period to rescind that approval.

Four of the 35 states which have ratified the ERA amendment have attempted to withdraw their approval.

Although an ERA supporter, Raliback contends extending the deadline without allowing the right of rescission would say to many Americans that Congress has decided to amend the constitution "even if it means stacking the deck."

McClory believes Raliback's amendment would "throw the whole ratification process into doubt," opening the way for legal fights and creating uncertainty as to when 38 states have approved ERA.

Edwards terms "unacceptable" both the Raliback amendment and another amendment which would require Congress to approve the deadline extension by a two-thirds vote (instead of a simple majority).

Either proposal could spell doom for the ERA, he believes. However Edwards said he has the votes to defeat both proposals.

Even if Edwards wins his committee fight by compromising on the length of the extension, the issue is by no means resolved at the Congressional level.

It still faces a fight on the House floor, and the Senate has been waiting to see what the House does before taking any action.

Time for action is running short because the Senate wants to complete its work for the year by mid-October so members seeking re-election will have time to campaign.

If Congress fails to act, ERA advocates say they are not giving up, even if it means starting from ground zero with a new resolution.

$1 million earmarked to teach nutritional values to children

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carol Tucker Frosman has announced that the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will make $1 million available for nutrition education projects to teach children the nutritional value of food and the relationship of nutrition to health.

Of the $1 million, $200,000 will be allocated for grants to states to conduct experimental and demonstration nutrition education projects.

Approximately $250,000 is earmarked for cooperative agreements and contracts with schools, nonprofit institutions, universities and private organizations to develop evaluation methodologies and innovative approaches to nutrition education for children. The remaining $550,000, to be administered by the USDA Federal Register notice, will be used to develop media materials and techniques for communicating nutrition education.

The funds are authorized under Section 18 of the Child Nutrition Act and are for fiscal year 1978, which ends Sept. 30, 1978.

"We believe these projects can both increase children's knowledge of nutrition and encourage their participation in the school food programs," she said.

The funds allocated for grants to state educational agencies are primarily aimed at developing and evaluating new ways to integrate nutrition education into school breakfast, school lunch, and other child nutrition programs.

To apply for the grants, state educational agencies should submit their applications to the Food and Nutrition Service's Contracting Officer by Aug. 14.

Bids and proposals from nonprofit institutions, universities, and private organizations to perform research and development projects under contract will be solicited through USDA's Requests for Proposals at a later date. These contractual actions will be published intermittently in the Commerce Business Daily.

SIU board withdraws responsibility for MRF

Responsibility for the Outdoor Performing Arts Facility and the Mississippi River Festival (MRF) at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was withdrawn Thursday from the School of Fine Arts and Communications and the Office of University Cultural Arts Services, in action by the SIU Board of Trustees.

In addition, the Board authorized the president of SIUE to determine the future programmatic and personnel responsibilities and assignments regarding the Office of University Cultural Arts Services and to determine the assignment of responsibility regarding the Outdoor Performing Arts Facility.

University officers explained that with the decision by the University in April to have the first place in the District 22 American Legion baseball league. Alton is one-half game back. Champion was picked to be a member of the North Division all-star team.

EDWARDSVILLE — Bob Jones is beatable and Al Yount can allow an earned run. Tri-City Post 113 found out both facts here last night in beating Edwardsville Post 199, 6-2, amidst rain showers and fog at Hoppe Field in American Legion baseball action. The victory enabled Post 113 to move one-half game ahead of Alton in the North Division of Legion Baseball District 22. Tri-City's record is 12-4. Alton stands at 11-4. Edwardsville's Jones suffered his first loss of the season on the mound while Yount allowed his first earned run of the campaign during last night's game. And there was no one he could blame but himself. He bailed in the run in the bottom of the seventh inning. Tri-City wasted no time in testing Edwardsville pitcher Jones the hard facts of District 22 life. Third baseman Jeff

Parker led off the second inning with a home run over the left field wall, his first of the season, to give Tri-City a 1-0 lead. "Gee, it's great to see those balls sailing over the wall," said an elated Tri-City coach Babe Champion afterwards. "Especially Parker. We've known all season he could do it."

It was just a matter of time before he found out he could himself. After Parker's blast, designated hitter Bob Stogemeier singled and stole second base, but was stranded there when the next two Tri-City batters struck out and left fielder Doug Rains fled out to right ending the threat. Two more Tri-City runs in the third added to the lead. And it was done with the help of only one base hit that a two-out single by rightfielder John Krekovich which scored catcher Keith Champion with the second run of the inning. First baseman John Thurman had earlier scored on a bases-loaded walk to Stogemeier.

MEANWHILE, Tri-City pitcher Al Yount was mowing down Edwardsville players at the plate like so much tall summer grass. He allowed only two base runners through the first four innings, one on a hit and the other a base-on-balls. "Al's tough to beat when he's got it," said Champion. "And he definitely had his stuff tonight." Jones, on the other hand, wasn't quite so fortunate. Already having been touched for three runs on three hits, he yielded another solo homer to Champion leading off the fourth inning. The ball sailed over the left field fence at almost the exact spot Parker's blast had.

In the seventh inning, Tri-City got two more insurance runs for three runs on three hits, he yielded another solo homer to Champion leading off the fourth inning. Howe wins first of season

Bill Myers of East Alton did it again Saturday night at Tri-City Speedway, winning his third consecutive late-model stock car feature race and his sixth of the season. The East Alton driver had a late start this season, missing the first few weeks due to an eye injury suffered at work during the winter. While working on a tooling machine, a gear he was cutting exploded and a sliver of metal lodged in his left eye, requiring two operations and a lengthy recovery period. May 6, he made his first attempt at racing since the injury and finished second to Dick Taylor of Springfield, Ill. Since then, Myers has won every feature race he has entered here. Jim Thompson of Belleville finished second, followed by Gary Gerstner of Bresson, Butch McGowan of Hardin, Ill., and Chuck Milam of Granite City. Myers also won the first heat race of the evening, trailed by Terry Cox of Ellsberry, Mo., and Hershel Jenkins of Decatur. Kenny Strum won the second heat, just in front of Thompson and McGowan. Phil Howe won his first sprint car feature of the season as an anticipated battle between Kenny Schrader and Dean Shirley failed to materialize.

Schrader, from Kirkwood, Mo., won the first three consecutive sprint features here this season and Shirley, from Lincoln, Ill., then dominated the next two. Neither was in the feature lineup. Finishing behind Howe in Saturday night's sprint main event were Jim Horn of Decatur, John Kemp of Belle Rive, Ill., Hershel Jenkins of Decatur and Clet Johnson of Dennison, Ill.

Horn and Jenkins finished first and second in the first heat race while Kemp won the second heat, followed by Howe. Top honors in the third heat race went to Johnson, trailed by Randy and Ronnie Strandridge, both of Springfield. Mo., won the first three consecutive sprint features here this season and Shirley, from Lincoln, Ill., then dominated the next two. Neither was in the feature lineup. Finishing behind Howe in Saturday night's sprint main event were Jim Horn of Decatur, John Kemp of Belle Rive, Ill., Hershel Jenkins of Decatur and Clet Johnson of Dennison, Ill.

Bryans won the second heat event, followed by Gibson. The feature victory was Gibson's second in a row and his third of the season at Tri-City. The retirement of Jim Moughan of Springfield as the track's promoter was announced during the race and the track owner, Elvin Doolin, promoted Saturday night's program. Doolin said he will close the track next Saturday night, since most of the sprint cars will be racing at the Richland County Fair in Olney and will be unavailable for racing here. Racing at Tri-City will resume July 29.

Four Tri-Cityans make elite squad

GRANITE CITY — Four members of the Tri-City American Legion Post 113 baseball team have been selected by the District 22 coaches to represent the North Division in the annual all-star game Tuesday, Aug. 1 at Cahokia. Shortstop Tom Henrich, second baseman Randy Smith, pitcher Tim Kirksey and catcher Keith Champion will represent Post 113. There will be an all-star dinner preceding the game. This Friday, all 36 members of the District 22 All-Stars will travel to ABC Park in St. Louis for a game with a team of St. Louis Legion All-Stars at 8 p.m.

Mercer still in NBC Tourney

EDWARDSVILLE — Mercer of Granite City continued to advance this weekend in the National Baseball Congress District Tournament being held at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Saturday, the team out-lasted Millstadt 4-3 in 15 innings to win and advance, to next weekend's game against either Millstadt or Valmeyer in the double-elimination tourney. Mercers had earlier defeated Valmeyer. Jerry Deul went all the way for Mercer on the mound Saturday, scattering 11 hits. He struck out seven batters and walked 6. He was matched-up with Millstadt's Steve Heick for 14 innings in a magnificent pitching duel. Heick allowed 13 Mercer hits, but struck out 12 and walked only two. He was relieved by Brian Fitzgerald who gave up the winning run in the fifteenth inning. Mercer had earlier scored two runs in the seventh inning to tie the game 3-3. The exact date of this weekend's game in the NBC tournament will not be known until after the opposition is known. The winner of the district tournament will advance to the state tournament held in Lockport later this month. Mercer will play a rescheduled Intercity League game this Wednesday night at SIU-Edwardsville against Collinsville at 6 p.m.

Mercer splits pair of games with Vans

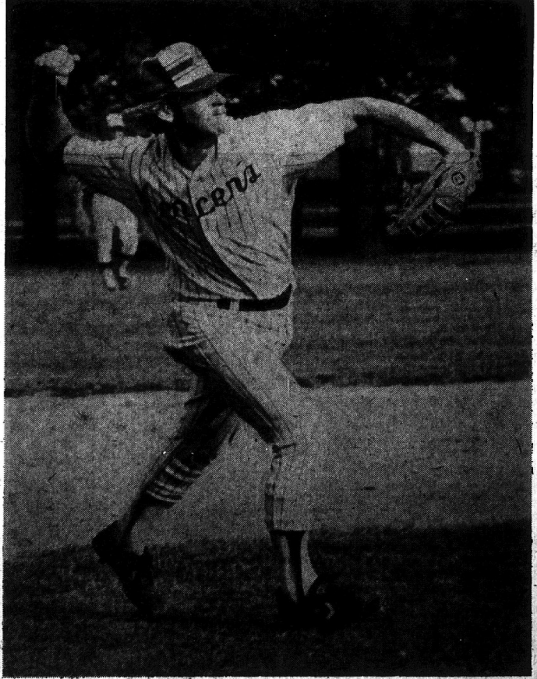

By DOUG IRVIN
For the Press-Record
Maryville won its first game of the season in the second half of a doubleheader with Wood River. Thomas lost two to Highland, Collinsville downed East Alton twice, and Mercer split with Music Room in Intercity Baseball League action yesterday. HIGHLAND 6, THOMAS 5. Thomas scored in the third and seventh and obtained a total of five hits. Elton Worthen pitched the whole game for the Thomas team. In the third, Bob Wainright hit a solo home run and in the last, Bill Jakich led off with a single. Dan Cook got a base hit followed by a fielder's choice to bring in the run. Doug Gremund broke in and secured the mound for Highland and Dave Haberer hit a home run in the first inning and was four for four in the first game. HIGHLAND 4, THOMAS 0. Behind the pitching arm of Steve Galbraith, Highland blanked Thomas in the last game of the doubleheader. Terry Savage started for Thomas and was relieved in the sixth by Don Rains.

Haberer was two for three making him six for seven for the day. With the two wins, Highland's record shoots to 15-1 and Thomas' falls to 1-13. WOOD RIVER 16, MARYVILLE 3. On 20 hits and superb all-around ball playing, Wood River squashed Maryville in the first game. Jeff Donahue hit two home runs — each with one runner on — to total five RBIs for the game. In the first inning, Wood River pulled off a triple play. With runners on first and second, Maryville hit a ground ball to third. The infielder tagged the bag, and threw to first getting out the batter. The first baseman then threw back to the third baseman who tagged out the runner who started on first base. MARYVILLE 13, WOOD RIVER 6. Maryville got tired of never winning — so they went to town. Maryville had nine hits compared to the ten of Wood River. Steve Mishanec pitched that game for Maryville. COLLINSVILLE 5, EAST ALTON 1. Ron Zambaldi and Scott McClary teamed up to pitch to East Alton and allowed no hits. Don Lang of Collinsville hit a homer in the seventh. Jeff Walter hurled for East Alton. COLLINSVILLE 12, EAST ALTON 2. Sterling Schiewbert pitched the full game for East Alton and gave up ten hits to Collinsville. Lang hit another homer, this one in the sixth and David Huddleston hit a home run in the second and batted three for three for the game with one RBI. MERCER 9, MUSIC ROOM VANS 7. Smashes windows Lannie Buckingham, 74, of 2047 Washington Ave., was injured when his car smashed through two plate glass windows at Kendall Appliance, 1200 Niedringhaus Avenue at 18th Street, at 10 a.m. Sunday.

The driver said his hand got entangled in the car's steering wheel and he accidentally pushed the accelerator. The car then went over the curb, across the sidewalk and into the windows.

Buckingham, who was charged with careless driving, went to St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he was treated for injuries to his left ankle and left knee and was released.

Wet and foggy, but still a win for Post 113

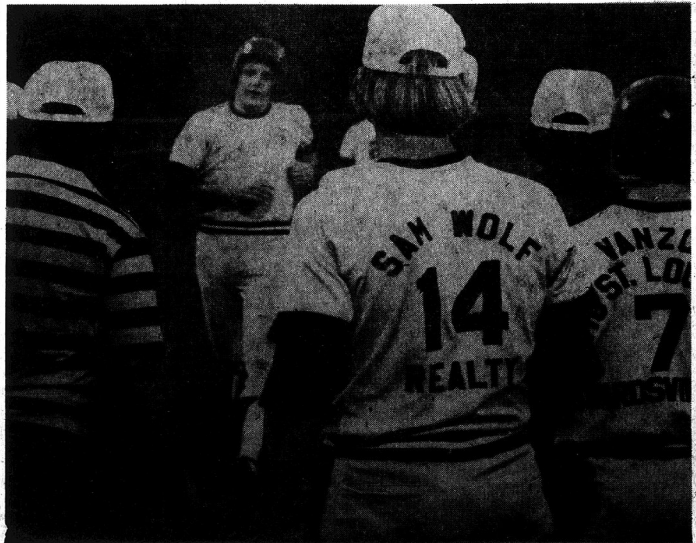

EDWARDSVILLE — In between the raindrops and somewhere out in the foggy outfield at Hoppe Field in Edwardsville last night, Tri-City Post 113's American Legion baseball team once again took sole possession of first place in the North Division of District 22 with a 6-2 victory over Edwardsville Post 199.

Even though not a drop of rain fell on Granite City, the players and fans at Edwardsville were drenched by several brief, hard rain showers.

If that weren't enough, after the rain had ceased a heavy, dense fog rolled into the outfield area and made it difficult for the fielders to see the ball coming out of the lights. It made for several interesting plays, to say the least.

Tri-City had begun the game tied with Alton for first place. Alton didn't have a game scheduled yesterday, so many members of the team were in Edwardsville last night to see Tri-City and Edwardsville collide.

GRANITE CITY — Lighting of the symbolic Olympic flame and the release of helium-filled balloons by youthful athletes will highlight the opening ceremonies of the annual Junior Olympics at 6:45 p.m. Tuesday.

The games will be staged again this year on Diamond 8 at Wilson Park, with competition beginning promptly at 7 p.m. Participants from six playground centers, where Granite City Park District summer recreation programs are being sponsored, will take part in the games.

The youthful competitors range from second grade boys and girls to those in seventh grade.

Carrying handmade Olympic-style banners, the athletes will march on to the lighted baseball diamond in groups, according to the playground center they are attending.

Centers represented will be Logan, Wilson, Nueces, Namooki and Webster schools and the Lincoln Place Community Center.

The youngsters will recite the pledge of allegiance and the Olympic Oath, while the symbolic Olympic torch is being lit by runner George Diak. At this point, Miss Nancy Polson, recreation supervisor, will declare the games "open" and the multicolored balloons will be launched by the children.

Also on hand for the ceremony will be members of the Granite City Board of Park Commissioners, who will be introduced by Harold E. Brown, director of parks and recreation.

Categories of competition will include softball roll, obstacle course, running long jump, softball throw, 20-yard sack race (for the younger athletes), 20, 40 and 60 yard dashes and 40 and 60 yard relay events.

Contestants will be divided into three age levels: miles, 7 and 8 years old, middle, 9 and 10 years old, and juniors, 11 and 12 years old.

Tri-City added two insurance runs in the seventh and stayed in a first place tie at that time with Alton, which buried Edwardsville Friday.

the first inning, three in the second and one in the third to take a commanding 8-0 lead.

But Music Room came through with seven runs of its own in the sixth inning to make it a one-run ball game.

That was before Jim Greenwald stepped to the plate, tripled and scored on Dave Schaake's sacrifice fly.

In that first inning, Jack Scarborough led off with a single, moved to second base and scored when Greenwald reached base on an error by the Music Room infield. Schaake singled to drive in Greenwald followed by Bob Hughes, after the runners had moved up, reaching base on a fielder's choice to make it 4-0.

Ken Schaake got things started in the second inning for Mercer. He singled, went to second when Scarborough walked and scored on a single by John Urban.

Greenwald walked followed by another Dave Schaake base hit which scored Urban and Greenwald. Mercer added a solo tally in the third inning when Eldon Warfield reached base on an error, went to second base on a fielder's choice and scored on a single by Scarborough.

The Vans tallied their seven runs in the sixth inning on only four hits and two Mercer errors. Five of the runs were earned.

MUSIC ROOM 4.

Music Room scored three times in the top of the ninth to take the victory from Mercer after taking an early 1-0 lead.

Music Room scored one run in the second inning on a Mark Downer RBI, but Mercer came back to tie it in the fourth inning when Pat Peterson singled.

Urban walked, followed by a RBI single by Dave Schaake. In the bottom of the eighth, Mercer had an excellent chance to put the game away.

A Scarborough walk followed by a hit-and-run single by Peterson gave Mercer men on first and third with one out and the two hottest batters on the team.

Urban and Greenwald, due up. But both men fled out ending the threat.

Music Room finally got to lower Todd Brook in the top of the ninth by getting four hits in the inning and scoring three times. Music Room outlasted Mercer 11-4 in the second game of the doubleheader.

Thompson cool to service in Senate

By AL MANNING

SPRINGFIELD — Gov. Jim Thompson has ruled out the possibility of serving in the U.S. Senate.

Like other good politicians, the governor does not want to foreclose any possible political development, especially since he's only 42 years old. Thus, it's been his general policy not to commit on speculation.

But Thompson says he cannot conceive of any offer of a judgeship which would interest him. For one thing, some of its aides in the U.S. attorney's office have become judges, and he could have chosen that route earlier had he wanted.

Governors of other states have resigned to accept cabinet appointments. In the event a Republican is elected president in 1980, Thompson says he already has held the most interesting job in the Justice Department.

Since he does not aspire to the judiciary, the cabinet or the Senate, the political goals are limited to two choices — president or vice president.

Before he can pursue that possibility, however, he must win re-election as governor.

The question raised: "Let us assume that tomorrow we were going to have a national election for president of the United States. Of all the names you can think of right now, which one name first comes to your mind that you, yourself, would like to see as our next president?"

President Carter led the poll with 21 percent. Former Gov. Ronald Reagan received nine per cent; Gov. Jerry Brown eight percent; and Thompson five percent.

In an unrelated article in the same magazine, a Washington, D.C., professor who specializes in television and politics, predicts that Thompson will be the GOP nominee.

The late Gov. Adlai Stevenson became the Democratic nominee for president in 1952 rather than seek a second term as Illinois governor.

But there could be other reasons for a resignation, also. The late Gov. Otto Kerner, for example, did not complete his second term because he accepted an appointment as a judge for the U.S. Court of Appeals. Thompson says he is not interested in a federal judgeship.

Dental laboratory technology program due at Lewis-Clark

Lewis and Clark Community College will start a two-year program in dental laboratory technology this fall.

"We are now accepting applications for those students interested and qualified for the program," Peter Chacharonis, health and life sciences division chairman at LCC, says.

But what type of work does a dental laboratory technician do?

"We fabricate complete dentures, partial dentures, crowns and bridge prosthodontics, dental ceramics and orthodontic appliances," said Dale Harrison, assistant professor at LCC and coordinator of the program.

Generally, they make oral prosthetic appliances that are prescribed by dentists.

This program is completely different from the dental assisting program, also at LCC. Dental assistant's duties involve working with the patients, when dental laboratory technicians often times never see the patients whom their work benefits.

People interested in pursuing a career in dental laboratory technology need to have good eyesight and manual dexterity; they should be persons who "like to work with their hands," Chacharonis says.

"It's a program that is good for both men and women," he added.

Harrison, who comes to LCC with 20 years of experience as a dental laboratory technician, says Lewis and Clark is beginning the dental laboratory technician program because there is always a need for skilled technicians.

Admission requirements for the program at LCC are as follows:

a. An LCCC application
b. High school or GED transcript
c. College transcript or equivalent, if any

Graduates can find employment opportunities in commercial dental laboratories, educational institutions, private dental offices, government clinics and also through self-employment.

In the State of Illinois, there are only two other such programs," Chacharonis said. They are at Triton Community College in the Chicago area, and at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale.

Boaters warned to guard against carbon monoxide

With the 1978 boating season under way, the U.S. Coast Guard has renewed its warnings of the danger of carbon monoxide poisoning on cabin cruisers and houseboats equipped with gasoline engines. Often, a back current of carbon monoxide-laden air is pulled into a moving boat, the Coast Guard's Office of Boating Safety points out. The office's chief technician, Captain Jack Coulter, says that result can be deadly, and that the onset of carbon monoxide poisoning often is not noticed until the victim is too groggy to recognize the danger.

"Upon the slightest smell of exhaust fumes in a cabin, open the forward ports, windows or doors as wide as possible," Coulter advises.

Captain Coulter recommends that boat operators acquaint themselves with the availability of inexpensive, throw-away carbon monoxide indicators. The indicator is a small plastic square with a brownish, coated spot in the center which changes color when exposed to air containing carbon monoxide. The degree of color change depends on the concentration of carbon monoxide. Although not generally available at marine supply outlets, Coulter says the indicators are routinely used in and around aircraft, and are commonly available at municipal and private airports at prices ranging between $1.50 to $2.

"Indicators are not cures. There is no substitute for alertness," Captain Coulter warns.

But, he suggests, operators of gasoline-powered boats may want to buy several small carbon monoxide indicators at the beginning of each boating season. The indicators usually are good for 3 to 4 weeks of exposure to air, Coulter says, and should be replaced when color changes. He urges users to follow manufacturers' instructions.

Odometer law requires you tell all

(Consumer report by the staff of Illinois Attorney General William J. Scott) Tamper not or else tell all. That's the main message of the Federal Odometer Disclosure Law. Used car shoppers need to know about odometers and the law. An automobile odometer is a dashboard instrument with six rotating numbers that count all the miles a car has traveled. A person breaks the federal law and the Illinois Consumer Fraud Act if he disconnects or changes the odometer to deceive a buyer about the resale value and condition of a used car. Attorney General William J. Scott's Office of Consumer Fraud and Protection enforces odometer laws in Illinois. The attorney general, under both Illinois and federal law, is empowered to obtain three-times the difference between the amount a consumer paid for a used car and the actual value, or $1,500, whichever is greater. In addition, the violator may be fined up to $50,000.

A consumer may choose to file a law suit with a private attorney. In addition to obtaining damages, the court may order the violator to pay consumer's court costs and a reasonable amount of attorney's fees. Scott's office receives complaints everyday about a used car that turned out to be a "Jemon." Often an investigation of such a complaint uncovers an odometer rollback. Spinning off miles from the odometer causes consumers double trouble: first you pay more for a car than it's worth and later you have unexpected repair bills. To protect the used car buyer against odometer rollbacks, the law says what the seller must tell the buyer about the number of miles recorded on the odometer. This written statement — called an Odometer Disclosure Statement — must be given to the buyer before the title is transferred. A used car seller must state if any of the following facts listed on the disclosure statement are true: The odometer reading is the actual number of miles driven. The car was driven more than 99,999 miles — the mechanical limit of the odometer. The odometer reading is not the actual mileage count.

The odometer was reset to zero. The odometer was repaired, replaced, altered, set back or disconnected. At the time the odometer was changed the mileage was 7. Always make sure the vehicle identification number is on the disclosure statement. While shopping for a used car, remember someone else wants to get rid of it. Ask yourself why? The odometer disclosure statement will give you a clue. After checking the disclosure statement ask the seller for the name of the previous owner. Contact him to find out if the odometer information is true. Ask other questions about the condition of the car.

$13.6 million for SIUE building heads budget

A multi-purpose building with facilities for physical education, recreation and athletics at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville heads the University's capital budget request for fiscal year 1980, approved Thursday by the SIUE Board of Trustees.

The capital budget request, which becomes part of the Resource Allocation and Management Program (RAMP) submissions for consideration by the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE), totals $19.1 million for the Edwardsville campus, including $13.6 million for the multi-purpose building.

Capital requests for the Carbondale campus total $20.7 million, headed by emission control projects for various buildings at an estimated cost of $9.1 million.

The resolution approved by the SIUE Board included authority to include in the FY '80 request any capital budget project included in the RAMP appropriation procedure for FY '79 should it not be funded by the legislature and signed into law by the governor.

Currently awaiting the signature of the governor is a bill appropriating $64.1 million in planning funds for the multi-purpose building. The bill was approved by both houses of the legislature.

Other SIUE projects in the FY '80 request, listed in order of the University's priority, are: Planning and design of permanent facilities for the School of Dental Medicine, $1.4 million; instrumental music rehearsal annex, $1.8 million; remodeling for handicapped and safety, Wagner buildings and Alton and East St. Louis campuses, $127,000; replacement of roofs of schools, communications and Rendleman buildings, $431,000; planning for renovation of Hagerman area, $45,000; phase III of Broadway renovation, $595,000; remodeling and rehabilitation of Alton campus buildings, $145,000; resurfacing roads and drives, $442,000; renovation of theater, Communications building, $155,000; replacement of carpet in Lovejoy Library, $180,000; and relocation of one-third of the northern portion of Bluff Road, $197,000.

School board of trustees seats three new members

The Madison County Regional Board of School Trustees at its meeting on July 10 officially seated the new members of the board, Byron Drennan of Bethalto and Willard Plagg of Moro, elected in January, and Keller of Collinsville, appointed to fill the vacancy incurred by the resignation of board member Karl Monroe of Collinsville.

Willard Plagg was elected as the president of the seven-member board for the next biennium. Other members of the board are: Homer Huber of Granite City, immediate past president; G. A. Shaffer of Troy, Joseph Berry of Alton, Gordon Burroughs of Edwardsville.

According to law, the regular meeting dates for the 1978-79 year are: Monday, October 2, 1978; Monday, January 1, 1979; Monday, April 2, 1979; and Monday, July 2, 1979. January 1, 1979, being a legal holiday, the meeting was scheduled for January 2, 1979. All meetings are held in the office of the regional superintendent of schools, Courthouse Annex, 201 Hillsboro Avenue, Edwardsville, 62026.

The trustees hold title to all school properties in the county and are responsible for the sale of school property at the request of the local school boards of education.

The trustees also conduct hearings pertaining to territory detachment and annexation from one school district to another as petitioned by residents.

Harold E. Briggs, regional superintendent of schools, serves by law as ex officio secretary of the board.

The board acted upon a resolution received from Alton 11 board of education for the sale of Delmar School. The date of the sale will be Saturday, July 29, 1978 at 10 a.m. on site. Members of the Regional Board of School Trustees serve without compensation, but are entitled to mileage. No member of the trustees, since the inception of the board in 1962, has ever filed a claim for mileage.

Boy, 7, believed drowned

Andre Keys, 7, St. Louis, apparently fell into the Mississippi River at 10:50 a.m. Sunday and is believed to have drowned.

The boy and two companions were left by their fathers on shore near the Venice boat dock as the men went fishing for several hours.

He apparently fell off a slab of concrete on the south side of the McKinley bridge and last was seen being pulled by the current around the Union Electric building.

Willie Keys, 11-year-old brother of Andre, ran to the Robin Reed tavern for help. The Venice fire department rescue boat was dispatched to search for the youth and the Alton Volunteer Emergency Corps began dragging operations.

As of this morning the youth had not been found and search operations were cancelled.

New admission plan at SIUE

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees Thursday approved a resolution authorizing the president of SIUE to establish a nominal fee per quarter for persons participating in the Educator Program.

University officials said the Educator Program will permit individuals from the area to attend classes on a non-credit, space-available basis without being formally admitted to the University.

Similar to the Listeners Permit Program at SIUC-Carbondale, the Educator Program is designed to promote continuing education in the community and provide a mechanism for people to pursue interests and goals in a mode other than a regular academic program.

The president is authorized to establish a quarterly fee for participation in the program to recover costs of its operation and to adjust the fee as experience indicates is necessary.

Officers said the president is further authorized to determine and establish the applicability of course and laboratory fees for persons participating in the Educator Program. Currently, specific student fees, such as laboratory, supply, material and facility fees, are assessable only of regularly admitted students.

Shaw opposes phaseout of remedial programs at state universities

Dr. Kenneth A. Shaw, president of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, expressed opposition last week to proposals by the Joint Education Committee of the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) and the State Board of Education, which would recommend phasing out remedial programs at the state universities, at the IBHE's July meeting in Chicago, the Board of Higher Education voted to table until September consideration of five resolutions proposed by the Joint Education Committee.

In his address to the IBHE, Dr. Shaw said, "I am in full agreement with an emerging national consensus in identifying a need to provide opportunities for all students to exhibit satisfactory reading, writing and computational skills."

Further, Dr. Shaw agreed with the Joint Education Committee's recommendation that the State Board of Education and Illinois Office of Education should provide assistance to local districts in establishing and operating remedial programs, but the president objected specifically to a proposed paragraph in the resolutions which stated: "The role of state universities in offering remedial programs should be minimized over the next several years. Within five years, remedial programs at the state universities should be phased out."

In addition, Dr. Shaw opposed a statement in the resolutions which recommended that community colleges should be increasing their role in remedial programs during the next five years while the state universities are decreasing their role.

"It would be a cruel hoax on the public and devastating to the future of education in Illinois to pretend the state universities can safely ignore remedial concerns within five years," Dr. Shaw said. "While it may be comfortable to let those in the community colleges bear the brunt of this problem, past experience and good sense cry out for a more realistic — if not merciful — division of labor."

Continuing, the president said, "In my considered opinion, these recommendations set time frames far too constricting if we are to accept what present knowledge would allow. Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to be proven wrong. But I think we will seriously deceive ourselves and the public, and further compound damage already done, if we go forward in the illusion that universities will be out of the business of remediation in any definitely foreseeable point in time."

Citing an urgent need for remedial programs, President Shaw said recent figures indicate that 42 percent of minority youths at the age of 17 are classified as functionally illiterate. In a recent year at the University of California, 46 percent of incoming freshmen at Berkeley and 48 percent at UCLA were deemed to need remedial English.

According to Dr. Shaw, there are numerous statistics to prove that "this is a problem that is national in scope and overwhelming in urgency." He declared that huge expenditures and programs have failed to arrest the problem.

President Shaw said SIUE currently is searching for a director of the University's newly created Academic Resource Center and is working for continuing improvements in remedial programs.

"Since our founding, with a continued presence in East St. Louis and a remedial writing clinic very active on our Edwardsville campus, we have been attacking this problem on every front we could identify, using every strategy we could conceive, attempting not only to develop language skills but seeking also to heighten awareness of scientific and mathematical potentials," Dr. Shaw said.

The president emphasized that the University has had some success to build on, but he cautioned that the remediation effort needs to be intensified rather than diminished.

"Years of attention to this problem, at enormous cost, have not brought us to the point where we can confidently say that the problem is being dealt with at full effectiveness at any level, any place. For any aspect of education to phase out a strong focus on remediation would do the citizens of the present and the future a grievous injustice," Dr. Shaw stated.

Charge driver displayed knife

Robert J. Lane, 28, of 2820 Victory Drive, was arrested at 23rd Street and Grand Avenue at 3 p.m. Thursday and was charged with disorderly conduct for allegedly waving a knife at another driver.

O. E. Moore, 2106 Dewey Ave., said he stopped his car for a stop sign and the driver of a car behind him got out, opened a door to Moore's auto, reached in and removed the keys from the ignition and threw them on the curb.

Two youths who saw the incident came to help Moore, but the man who took the keys then allegedly displayed a knife and the youths ran away.

Granite City Patrolman J. W. Apperson, who was off-duty, saw a man swinging a knife in a threatening manner near the car and stopped to investigate, he said. Apperson took the knife from the man and held him until a squad car arrived, it was reported.

Lane was released from custody at 4 p.m. Thursday after posting $35 cash bond.

Q. Our 8-month-old golden retriever seems to have very waxy ears. His fur looks wet around his ears. Is there anything I can use to clean his ears and the fur around them? Thank you. —J.B.

A. Plug his ears with cotton and treat his ears and the surrounding fur with a detergent like Dawn. Rinse thoroughly and dry thoroughly. One cause of waxy ears is protein deficiency. I suggest that the diet be examined with this in mind.

Handwriting—Long loops indicate a woman of action

I am 26 and have an 8 to 5 secretarial job, consisting mostly of typing and shorthand. It pays pretty good but I don't like it. I've had several jobs like this but am always unhappy. What do you see for me to do? —S.K.

Dear S.K.: Clacking typewriter keys and making shorthand notes all day long are as unpalatable to your personality as a squirt of lemon juice in a glass of milk. You will always be misaligned in an 8 to 5 confining kind of job. You are a person of action, seen in the long lower loops, I mean action that moves your muscles, seen particularly in the long p loop, and action that will challenge your mind, seen in the high wedge shaped u's and v's.

When you seek another job, look for one that will give you plenty of speed for your energies, one that will allow you to set your own work

And the longer they've been in office, the more likely it is they own investment real estate—86.7 percent of long-tenure congressmen, 55.1 percent of their freshmen counterparts.

The queen of country music, LORETTA LYNN, has been receiving lots of mail from her fans. Visiting with her backstage at the Aladdin Hotel in Las Vegas, Loretta didn't seem worried, since DINA H. SHORE told her she gets threatening mail, too. Now Loretta doesn't feel so singled out.

Electric winches boon to boaters

Keeping step with the development of larger boats, makers of trailers and related items have steadily improved their products so that today even the largest trailerable rigs can be managed without strain. A key development has been the electric trailer winch. If you have never tried one, you really have no concept of how effectively it changes a hard job into an easy one. As size and load rating go up, the gearing in manually-operated winches must be chosen to suit the job. The gear ratios tend to be on the powerful but slow side. That is, although the crank is easy to turn, many revolutions are needed to haul a boat out. While each turn does not call for undue effort, the large number of turns required can leave even a strong man gasping for breath. But with an electric winch, the car's battery provides the power. Since the switch can be operated from several feet away by means of full cords, it is possible to stand alongside the boat and hold it against wind or current and thus guide it straight onto the trailer's keel rollers.

Never spank a child, except when...

Q. A so-called authority on child development once made the statement that there never is a reason for spanking a child. Never!

Do you agree with that point of view?

A. No. Preventive discipline (like a fence yard to keep a child from running into the street, no dangerous toys that could hurt it if thrown and turn-of-the-handles and covered electrical plugs) can help avoid the need for spanking.

But once in a while, it seems to be the only way. For the mental health of the parent as well as the safety of the child it may be appropriate. Calmly (not in anger) and deliberately (not in wild abandon) it may help solve problems and prevent later disciplinary needs.

You might want to read some of the materials by Dorothy Baruch and James Hymes on the subject. Your local library should have them.

Q. I recently heard that John Ritter, who was a famous person, but I don't know who. Can you help me?

A. John Ritter is the son of the late country-western singer Tex Ritter.

by Lynn E. Baird, superintendent, Illinois State Police, lists a total of 842 fatalities during the first six months of 1978, a decrease of 148 from last year.

"Operation CARE," Concentrated
Accident Reduction
Effort.

This program was utilized
during various holiday periods to strictly enforce all traffic laws, maintain high visibility and to assist the motoring public on specified interstate, highways. Police in more than 40 states participated. The Illinois State Police also initiated a "Concentrated

In Memoriam 33

In Loving Memory of MERTICE D. WALLACE who passed away July 20, 1971.

The pain is still within our hearts

And tears still fill our eyes for it has been

Seven years ago today

You said that last good bye

We miss you in so many ways

And long to see your smile

To talk with you

Just one more time

It was so hard to see you go

But God He knows what's best

And in heaven with him

You are this day

The place of peace and rest.
